

Digital Sign Policy

Hampstead Public Library's digital sign is limited to library functions only. It is to be used to promote library programs, services, collections, news and to communicate any announcements pertaining to the Friends of the library. Library events held off the library premises that are sponsored by the Hampstead Public Library or the Friends of the library may be promoted on the library's digital sign.

1. Town announcement inclusions shall be determined by the Library Director or the Board of Trustees.
2. The sign will be dimmed between the hours of 9PM to 7AM from October to March and 10PM to 7AM from April to September.
